

Macfarlane Canoe Races Big Success

In probably the year's outstanding beach extravaganza the annual Walter Macfarlane canoe races were staged yesterday in a thrill-packed program of 12 events at Waikiki. Staged annually by the Outrigger Canoe Club to honor its late president, the aquatic classic was a huge success from every angle. Expertly handled by a committee headed by Duke Kahanamoku, Gay Harris and Miss Jeanne Reichard, the program was put over in fine style.

The OCC crews dominated the events, winning nine titles, including the blue ribbon six-man senior open race for the Macfarlane perpetual trophy. Duke Kahanamoku captained the winning crew. The Kaiopua crew was second and Hui Nalu third.

Marinettes Win

The day's special event featuring the women in service went to the women marines who finished ahead of the Red Cross. Third were the Spars followed by the Vacs and Waves. Charley Amalu headed the winning crew!

The Outrigger club also won the relay canoe race.
