Hui Nalu Second In Waikiki Event

OCC Rolls Up 42 Points To 32 For Hui Nalu;
Stevadores Gain Four Markers For Third
Place; Junior Civic Club Is Fourth

The Outrigger Canoe Club won the holiday canoe regatta at Waikiki yesterday by scoring 42 points. Hui Nalu placed second with 32, while McCabe, Hamilton and Renny Stevedores were third with four and the Junior Hawaiian Civic Club gained one point.

The usual post-race squabble over disqualifications highlighted the long afternoon.

Hui Nalu, coached by John D. Kaupiko, began auspiciously by annexing the junior men six event in 11:00.3. The crew was composed of D. Aki, G. Young, Nip Akona, Blau, C. Bredo and B. Young. Outrigger was second and M-H-R third.

The Hui Nalu senior girls' six also captured the second event in 7:14 with E. Ornellas, V. Makua, J. Ornellas, J. Kaunhi, B. Winklen and B. Makua handling the oars.

OCC finally won the senior men's four in 11:33.7 with Hui Nalu No. 1 second and Hui Nalu No. 2 third. In the winning canoe were Carlos Rivas, R. Tobin, J. Beaumont, and A. E. Minnville.

Hui Nalu No. 1 finished first in the junior men's four but was disqualified for cutting in and the race was given to the OCC canoe of D. Denhart, Cusack, Wilkinson and French.

OCC won the junior girls' six in 7:39.6.

The senior men's six went to OCC in 30:54.4 for a new course record. The canoe was manned by Tom Arnott, Jamie Dowsett, Bob Bush, James Pflueger, Fred Chaney and Allan Love.

The freshmen men's six was won by Hui Nalu's Kaupau. Kalili, Ailgu, Chang, Minn and B. Young in 10:58.5. The men over 40 event went to OCC in 7:04 with the boat paddled by Harris, Amalu, Whittle, Hollinger, Taylor and Klakona.

OCC took the two-canoe relay by two lengths over Hui Nalu in 12:41.3. On the oars were Arnott, Dowsett, Bush, Pflueger, Chaney, Love, Rivas, Tobin, Beaumont, Thomas, Wilkinson and Minnville.
