Canoe Races Are Held At Waikiki

The annual Walter J. Macfarlane Memorial canoe regatta was held yesterday by the Outrigger Canoe Club.

With Hui Nalu and Waikiki Surf Club dropping out of the races yesterday morning, the colorful beach competition was held exclusively among crews from the Outrigger Canoe Club.

A disagreement regarding entries caused the two clubs to withdraw their paddlers. Hui Nalu and the Surf Club opposed the move of the OCC to enter two crews.

The OCC officials explained that only points won by its No. 1 canoe would count toward the team championship, although the second crew could qualify for medals. The explanation was not accepted.

The Leilani, crewed by O'Brien, Ackerman, Pflueger, Arnott, Ekstrand, Love, won the Senior Six race for men, with the Kakina crew second.

First honors in the Women's Senior Six race went to the Leilani crew. The Kakina was swamped. In the freshmen six event, the Kakina nosed ahead of Leilani at the finish line, while the Leilani was the winner of the Junior Six race for men.
