

Native Day at the Outrigger Club.

In the way far back days OCC celebrated Native Day at the club each July 4th. Non-members were invited to spend a day of relaxation at the "clubhouse" and have themselves a real picnic. As the years went on this affair became a more and more important event as the visitors took to preparing an entire luau right at the site. And it sometimes took longer than one day to wind up Native Day at the club. Work? Who gotta go work? Not me. Take two . . . three days off. Thass OK.

True the whole world over . . .

"It's the Water"
that makes the difference

OLYMPIA BEER WINE COMPANY, COLUMBIA, WASH. U.S.A.

JULY 4TH BIG DAY AT OCC

The 18th annual Walter MacFarlane Races will be held July 4th as always, and this event always proves to be a colorful and exciting day at OCC. Many clubs will be participating for paddling honors in the races which always draw big crowds from local people as well as visitors.

Club coach Rabbit Kekai is entering eleven Outrigger Canoe Club crews in the competition in age groups ranging from 13 and up, through to seniors. The newly renovated Kakina will be back in the water and rarin' to go on that day. This sleek canoe has brought us many honors and we expect she will continue to do so.

Homework above fourth grade level seems to be designed to embarrass helpful parents as much as to educate their children.