

Waikiki Surf Nips Outrigger for Macfarlane Canoe Title

Waikiki Surf Club won the annual Walter Macfarlane Regatta yesterday, but host Outrigger Canoe Club managed to steal the spotlight.

Coch Nappy Napoleon's Waikiki paddlers won six events to finish with 44 points in edging Outrigger, coached by Fred Hemmings, by a point in the final team staddings.

What may have saved the team title for Waikiki was a second-place finish in the men's senior event, won by Outrigger. OCC crossed the finish line 22 seconds ahead of Waikiki for first place and the Matsun Navigation Trophy.

H E A L A N I, which won three events, was third with 40 points followed by Hui Nalu (34), fast-improving Kailua Hawaiian Civic Club (22), Lanikai (15), Kai Oni (12), Leeward Kai (3) and Makaha (3).

The regatta, which was held at Waikiki Beach where surf is a big factor, was made to order for Waikiki and Outrigger but some of the other clubs such as Kailua, which had one canoe swamped, and Lanikai found the going tough.

Waikiki Surf Club won the Sam Poepoe Trophy for finishing first in the Boys "B" 12-and-under race and took home the John D. Kaupiko Trophy for winning the special four-man race.

John Kapua Jr. was race chairman yesterday and the regatta attracted approximately 4,000 spectators.

The next race is the John D. Kaupiko Regatta to be held July 16 at Waikiki Beach. The event is named after the founder of the Hui Nalu Canoe Club.
