

Outrigger Second in Macfarlane Regatta

In one of the most exciting Walter J. Macfarlane 4th of July Regattas in a long time, three clubs were tied at the end of 27 events--Outrigger, Hui Nalu and Lanikai--all with 59 points.

Outrigger won event 28, the Mixed Open, and Hui Nalu won event 29, the Masters women.

Going into the final event of the day--the Masters men 1-mile race--Outrigger and Hui Nalu were tied at 64 points each. It was even at the turn, but Hui Nalu caught a wave at the quarter-mile flag and finished in 7:21.87, followed by Hui Lanakila in 7:22.67 and Outrigger in 7:23.56.

It was the first time in 10 years that anyone but Outrigger had won the Macfarlane Regatta, although OCC and Hui Nalu tied last year. Hui Nalu won the regatta with 69 points, followed by OCC with 66, Lanikai with 57, Kailua with 43, Hui Lanakila with 34 and Healani and Waikiki Surf Club tied with 18.

Outrigger paddlers made a good showing, winning the Girls 14, 16 and 18, the Boys 16, the Novice A men, the Sophomore and Junior women, the Sophomore men and the Mixed Open.

The weather was great for the 51st annual race, but surf was a disappointing 1-2 feet. Naturally, the South swell hit the next day bringing surf of 4-6 feet.

Five records were set in the Sophomore, Junior and Senior Masters men, and the Masters and Open 4 women. Setting a new record in the Sophomore race were Outrigger's Todd Payes, Geoff Graf, Dean Maeva, Robbie Harrison, Tommy Damon and Billy Bolding.

Special thanks goes to two novice girls, Jennifer Stahl and Sophie Hastings, who made leis for every OCC paddler and presented them at the end of each race. Mahalo.

This year, the OH CRA officials and OCC tent were located in front of the Outrigger Hotel, and for many, Duke's became our club away from home. It was almost like sitting in the bar at the old Club on the 4th of July and watching the races.

Our thanks also to the Senior Masters women who sold Macfarlane Regatta t-shirts for nearly eight hours at the OCC tent, and then later that evening back at the Club during the 4th of July party. One of the shirts was designed by Non-resident member Jim Goss, a Walt Disney artist in California.

Profits from the T-shirts go to the Outrigger Duke Kahanamoku Foundation and to the OCC paddling program.

There were a few T-shirts left, so check the Logo Shop if you'd like one. 🍹

The winning Sophomore women are Malia Kamisugi, Kaili Chun, Nicole Wilcox, Sara Ackerman, Todd Bradley and Donna Kahakui.

Watching the regatta from Duke's were Club President Chuck Swanson, and wife Anne, standing; and Macfarlane family members, Rici Guild, Muriel Flanders and Mary Philpotts-McGrath, and John McGrath.

Selling Macfarlane Regatta T-shirts were Peg Danford, Bonnie Smolenski, Gerri Pedesky, Diane Stowell and Diane Ackerman.

Head Coach Di Guild led the pep rally in the Bar following breakfast at the Club.

The winning mixed open crew was Walter Guild, Janna Arakaki, Mark Rigg, Kisi Haine, Courtney Seto and Shannon Dungeon.

The Novice A Men won their race--Coach Karl Heyer IV, Ethan Tweedy, Todd Harrison, Gunner Schull, Tim O'Leary, Dave Puder and Todd Bradley.

Heath Hemmings steered the Junior women to victory--Genie Kincaid, Lisa Livingston, Norma Santiago, Paula Crabb and Tiare Finney.

The Sophomore men set a record in their event--Billy Balding, Todd Payes, Robbie Harrison, Geoff Graf, Tommy Damon and Dean Maeva.
