Outrigger Canoe Club is in spotlight again

When it comes to the Walter J. Macfarlane Memorial Canoe Regatta, there is no team better than the Outrigger Canoe Club.

At least there wasn't yesterday.

OCC captured the 52nd running of the regatta in waters off Waikiki Beach yesterday by finishing with 76 points in the AA division for clubs with 15 or more crews.

Lanikai was second with 57 points, followed by Kailua (52), Hui Nalu (43) and Healani (30).

In competition for clubs with 15 crews or less, the Waikiki Surf Club accumulated 25 points to win the A division. Rounding out the top six were Leeward (16), Hui Lanakila (14), Anuenue (11), Honolulu (4) and Kai Oni (1).

OCC took center stage three years ago as champion of the Macfarlane race and shared top honors with Hui Nalu in 1992.

Yesterday, OCC won nine of 30 races to grab the spotlight again.

Leading the charge were the women, who won the open 4, seniors, sophomores and novice A.

The OCC's girls also captured the 12-year-old age group title while the men took firsts in the juniors, freshmen, novice A and novice B.

The win was a welcome relief for OCC.

In the Waimanalo Regatta eight days ago, it finished fourth.

"We got lucky today," said OCC coach Billy Philpotts. "We got a lot of good waves, so we came out on top."

Lanikai won five events while defending champion Hui Nalu captured four races.
