The 1997 canoe season culminated with the Molokai to Oahu race on October 12. Outrigger was represented by two open men's crews.

In the fiberglass division, Tom Conner, Mark Sandvold, Bill Pratt, Wyatt Jones, Karl Heyer IV, Andrew Glatzel, Walter Guild, Marc Haine and Todd Bradley paddled to a 9th place finish (3rd Hawaiian crew) in 5:12:07.

In the Kaoloa, Outrigger's koa canoe, Dave Stackhouse, Ralph Gray, Chris Siegfried, Chris Laird, Chris Hochuli, Victor Sherman, Byron Ho, John Eveleth and Casey Teixeira placed second in the koa division. They were 24th overall in 5:31:16.

Despite less than ideal wind and sea conditions, and intense international and local competition, both crews returned a fine effort and should be congratulated. The 1997 canoe program has produced some fine up and coming talent and we all look forward to carrying this momentum into the 1998 racing season.

Many mahalos to John Rader, Don Isaacs, Dome Gose, David Kuh and the rest of the OCC staff for their hard work and support in 1997. Paula Crabb, and the other members of the Canoe Racing Committee, deserve high accolades for their dedication in administering this year's program. Finally, I would like to thank the Board and the membership of the Outrigger Canoe Club for allowing us to represent the Club during the 1997 racing season. ☺

Attention Coaches

Anyone interested in coaching Outrigger's paddling crews during the 1998 regatta and distance seasons, should pick up an application at the Front Desk. Deadline to apply is January 5. For more information contact Paula Crabb, Canoe Racing Chair. ☺

And a woman who held her babe against her bosom said, Speak to us of Children.

And he said:

Your children are not your children. They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself. They come through you but not from you, And though they are with you yet they belong not to you. You may give them your love but not your thoughts. For they have their own thoughts. You may house their bodies but not their souls, for their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams. You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you. For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday. You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth. The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far. Let your bending in the archer's hand be for gladness; For even as He loves the arrow that lies, so He loves also the bow that is stable.
