

KAMEHAMEHA DAY

RACES

KAIULANI HOTEL OPENS

Kam Day, June 11 really starts the canoe racing season. Races will be held at Honolulu Harbor beginning in the morning. The OCC hopes to enter all events with greatly augmented crews, more strength and surely more training.

Our young paddlers are training each day under the able instruction of Charley Martin, head coach, Chuck Shrader, his assistant and Tommy Kiakona who is doing wonderfully with the girl crews.

Fred Hemming is a tower of strength in keeping order and interest among the paddlers and checking operations at the training table. Bill Monahan is acting as trainer and we see Fred Steere and Bill Capp around doing their bit each day. With all the interest shown and the good turn outs much is expected from our crews this year. But, win, draw or lose—we are for them 100 per cent as long as they keep trying.

Sir Frank Beaurepaire, friend of "Dad" Center, official of the Australian Olympics, will be an OCC guest on July 4. He has agreed to act as an "Honorary" judge of the Walter Mac races.
