

OCC PADDLERS WIN

ALL-ISLANDS TITLE

A strong Outrigger Canoe Club paddling team, after losing the Walter Macfarlane Memorial Canoe regatta, came back to sweep the All-Islands championships at Keehi lagoon.

In the July 4th weekend races at Waikiki the Waikiki Surf Club edged the OCC paddlers 32 to 31. Kai Oni placed third with 24 points followed by Healani and Lanikai with 14 and 13 points respectively.

The Waikiki surfers took the men's senior and both the women's junior and senior events in their bid to come from behind and win.

The Outrigger won the boys 14 and under and freshmen men's events and placed second in the women's novice, men's novice, boys 17 and under, senior men, and senior women events.

Pictured here are Outrigger crews that placed first in the All-Islands championships.

Novice girls—Front row—B. J. Filoni, Laurie Ames. Back row—Cindy May, Diana Halpern, Patty McKinney, Carol Gamble.

Senior men—Coach George Downing, Timmy Guard, Terry Woodall, Joe Cabell, Rick Steere and Doug Carr.

Freshmen—Bruce Ames, Ash Hartwell, Butch Hemmings, Billy Halpern, Ron Durand, Mike Carney.

Boys 14 and under—Fred Hemmings, Jimmy McLeane, David Pietsch, Tommy Fearon, Peter Guard, and Terry Ledford.