

pectively in the state races . . . The generous Aloha spirit of OCC members recently came to the aid of the Makaha Canoe Club. It happened this way. The Makaha Club's koa canoe was badly damaged in front of the Outrigger. Rudy Huber mentioned to PR Committee Chairman M. J. Berenzweig that it might be nice to try to raise some funds for its repair. B'Wig immediately organized a group and Club Captain Fred Hemmings took over the running of the collection with the help of many volunteers. Within the hour over $300 was donated and later presented to Makaha
