

Outrigger Wins Waialeale Regatta

The conditions weren't the greatest, but it didn't stop Outrigger paddlers from winning their second straight 1987 regatta, June 14 at Waimanalo Beach.

Weather for the Pops Waialeale Regatta was rainy and windy and the start was delayed more than an hour while paddlers waited for a heavy squall to pass and runaway flags to be repositioned.

OCC outdistanced runnerup Kailua Canoe Club, 94-69 to win the title.

Because of the rough seas and wind, open steersmen were used in kids and novice races.

The Hemmings family had a great day with Meaghan and Kauai scoring golds in the Girl's 12 race. Heath steered the Boy's 12A and 16s to victories. Fred Jr. steered the Masters Men to a victory and Suzy coached her Novice A's to a gold and was on the winning Senior Women's crew.
