

“Too Hot to Stop” Paddlers Win Healani Regatta

It was closer than any of us would have liked, but hard work paid off as Outrigger picked up win number four in the OHCRA Regatta Season, June 28 at Keehi Lagoon.

The Club won the Healani Regatta by holding off a strong challenge by Kailua, 78-75, in the closest race of the season.

The weather was beautiful and the newly placed coral kept red dirt at a minimum.

Outrigger had wins by all of its upper division men's crews, men's and women's senior masters, girl's 14s, boy's 16s and senior women to stay on top of the paddling world. 🍹

Club president Tom Haine watched OCC pick up victory four with granddaughter Natasha Haine.
