

Hobie Cat Winter Regatta Series coming up

Following close on the heels of the World Championships, the 1973 Hobie Cat season got under way at Kaneohe Bay on February 11th with a three race series. The next event was scheduled for Kailua on February 27th. These two meets start the long haul to the State Championships in September and the National Championships in October at San Diego, California.