

BASKETBALL GAMES DAY'S ONLY SPORT

Two Rattling Good Contests For This Afternoon On Moili-ili Field Court

TODAY'S BASKETBALL

2:30 p. m.—Signal Corps vs. Marines.
Afterward—College of Hawaii vs.
Outrigger.

TOMORROW'S GAMES

2:30 p. m.—Coast Defense vs. Hospital Department.

Afterward—First Hawaiian vs. All-Stars (exhibition).

Two games this afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock and as many again at the same hour tomorrow afternoon, all on the Moiliili Field court, will give fans and followers of the Oahu-Service Athletic League all they want of enjoyment in basketball.

The real attraction, though, will be the opening game today, when the Marines and Signal Corps will come together, for they are the real class of the circuit. Each team has won both games played and are now tied at the head of the club standing. This afternoon should determine which remains at the top and which drops makai and malalo.

The second tilt between the College of Hawaii and the Outrigger Canoe Club quintets will also be quite an interesting affair. The sides are evenly balanced. Kan Leong, coach and star basket shooter of the Manoa collegians, has worked his team into fine shape and he actually pleads guilty to a hunch that Hawaii will win the day.

Of course, Kan Leong must take into consideration the fact that Percy Nottage is playing on the opposition team, which might make quite a difference were it otherwise, for Percy is real naughty on the basketball court and will not be denied.

Since this is the only sport offering for the day, it is expected that there will be a good-sized crowd in attendance, something which has been lacking heretofore at these games.
