

OAHU-SERVICE TO PLAY IN ARMORY

J. Ashman Beaven, president, announced this morning that the remainder of the Oahu-Service Basketball League schedule would be completed within doors in the armory.

Instead of playing a doubleheader Saturday and Sunday at Moiliili field, as the case to date, the league will stake its games in the armory, commencing Saturday night.

On Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock the College of Hawaii will meet the Coast Defense and following the conclusion of the first game the Marines will tackle the Outrigger Club.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock another doubleheader will be staged in the armory with the Signal Corps meeting the 1st Hawaiian and the Hospital Corps playing an exhibition game with some other team.

After that doubleheaders will be staged Thursday evenings and Sunday afternoons until the schedule is completed.
