This Week's Games

Thursday, 7:30 p. m.—College of Hawaii vs. Department Hospital; First Hawaiian vs. Marines.

Sunday, 2:30 p. m.—Signal Corps vs. Coast Defense; First Hawaiian vs. Department Hospital.

The attendance fell far below what it was expected to be at yesterday's basketball double-header in the armory of the National Guard for it was the smallest imaginable. Just why the fans do not turn out better for this fine sport is something the Oahu-Service Athletic League officials have long ago given up trying to figure out.

Yesterday afternoon's two games were certainly well worth while taking in, for they were both fast and close, particularly the Signal Corps-Haneberg All Stars contest which was a scrappy affair from start to finish and only decided in the last few moments of play.

Of course, the First Hawaiian team was real true to form, only two players, "Lil" Lilinoe and C. C. Williams, being on hand. Thus, the only regular game of the afternoon was won by the Signal Corps from the First Hawaiian, 2-0, by forfeiture.

The two exhibition games which were played were all to the good. In the first game Goetas' All-Stars defeated the Morganites, 30-18, while in the second contest the Signal Corps won from the Henry Haneberg All Stars, 47-44. The second game, particularly, was an interesting and exciting one.
