

OUTRIGGER CLUB SCARES SEADOGS IN BASKETBALL

Playing a brilliant game, the Outrigger Canoe Club threw a scare into the league-leading Marines in a basketball battle Saturday night at the armory. The melee wound up by a score of 39 to 26 in favor of the Marines but the score does not indicate how hard both teams fought. And it was only in the last quarter that the Marines edged away to victory. Adkins and McGee were the big stars for the winners while Decker, Auerbach and Nottage were the limelight lads for the losers.

In the first game of the evening the Coast Defense team had an easy time of it trimming the College of Hawaii by a score of 79 to 4. Levenson and Wells did most of the scoring, the latter putting in some pretty shots. For the losers Kan Leong got the lone two baskets.

There was a good sized crowd on hand for the Saturday show and at times the applause was crashing. The Marines turned out well to boost for their team and the Outriggers were also well represented.

Sunday

On Sunday afternoon there was a much smaller crowd on hand. For some reason or other the only two of the 1st Hawaiian players turned out and the Signal Corps won the game by forfeit with a score of 2-0. Two exhibition games were staged. The All-Stars defeated the Morganites by a score of 30-18 and the Haneberg team lost to the Signal Corps by a score of 47-44.

	P.	W.	L.	Pct.
Marine	4	4	0	1.000
Coast Defense .	4	3	1	.750
Signal Corps ...	4	3	1	.750
Outrigger Club.	5	3	2	.600
Col. of Hawaii .	4	1	3	.250
Dept. Hospital .	3	0	3	.000
1st Hawaiian ..	4	0	4	.000