

ARGONAUTS WORK HARD IN BATTLE WITH SEA DOGS

The Marines, champions of the Oahu Service Basketball league, had to extend themselves last night in an exhibition game when they met the fast and elusive Argonauts, champions of the Intermediate Basketball league. For the first time in the season the Marines famous zip-bang-slam system of scoring went into the discard.

The victory finally rested with the Marines but for a time the supporters of the intermediates had hopes of victory for their team. Finally the Marines got back into their stride and cleaned up.

In the second game Haneberg's chickens defeated the Signal Corps by a score of 39 to 32 in a close game. The first exhibition game took the place of the game forfeited to the Marines by the Department Hospital and the second took the place of the game forfeited to the Signal Corps by the College of Hawaii.

Saturday evening the Marines will play the Coast Defense and a dance will follow the presentation of the cup to the victorious Marines.
