

BIG LEAGUE BASKETBALL TONIGHT

NEVADA TACKLES OUTRIGGER TEAM

The University of Nevada basketball team will play the Outrigger Canoe club team at the National Guard armory at 8 o'clock tonight. The Nevada men have with them the same team which defeated the Stanford team, winners of the Pacific Coast Conference title last season.

Three members of the Nevada team, Buckman, Bradshaw and White, were picked as All-Nevada-California conference team members. The other players on the visiting team, Foster, Reed, Middleton and Martin are all fast men and altogether they compose a well balanced team.

The National Guard team which won the A. A. U. league championship here last year will meet the Nevadans tomorrow night. The seating arrangements will be the same as those used at the first Honolulu Service club smoker.
