

Basketeers Get Season Started Tonight, 7 P.M.

Four games, three in Honolulu and one at Luke Field, will open the season of the Oahu Amateur Basketball league tonight. The three games in Honolulu will be played at the National Guard armory, with the first one starting at 7 p. m.

In this game the Honolulu Service club meets the Marines from Pearl Harbor. Fort Ruger and the Honolulu Amateur Athletic club will take the floor at 8 o'clock in the second game and the third game opening at 9 o'clock will be between the Outrigger Canoe club and the Fort De Russy team. Schofield plays at Luke Field.

A record crowd is expected to be on hand for the opening games at the armory tonight.

Some hair-raising basketball game, climaxed with a garrison finish, was served up to the fans who turned out Saturday night at the National Guard armory and saw the Outrigger Canoe club five beat the National Guard quintet by the close score of 32 to 31. Chester Langenstein scored the winning goal in the last half minute of play.

Both teams went in for long shots and plenty of the long shots reached home. The battle was close and hard fought all the way. At the end of the first quarter the Guards led 8 to 6. At half time the Guards led 15 to 10. At the end of the third quarter the Outriggers led 22 to 21.
