

SEVEN GAMES CARDED ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Seven games are carded tomorrow night in the Oahu Amateur Basketball league. Three of these will be staged at the National Guard armory while the other four will be scattered at various post courts.

The triple-header at the armory is bound to draw a good crowd. The opening game of the bill will bring out Fort De Russy and the Honolulu Amateur Athletic club at 7 o'clock. Following this melee will come the Outrigger Canoe club against the Officers' team from Schofield Barracks. This should be a classy affair. The third game of the evening will start at 9 o'clock and will see the A. C. A. team tackle the Honolulu Service club.

Out at the posts, the best game should be that between Fort Shafter and Schofield at Schofield. The Shafter men have a wealth of stuff and the fast inland poster will have to step some to hole them. The National Guard will play Fort Ruger at its own post; the Marines will tackle Fort Kamehameha and Luke Field will play at Pearl Harbor.
