

Lightweight Cage League Opens Up With Humdingers

The Lightweight Basketball league opened its season last night with two games in the Palama gym.

In the first game the Palamas defeated the Beauts by the score of 49 to 22.

Lee Chong, Goeas and Sbigi Matsuguma did all the basket shooting for the Palamas. Ah Tim, Matsuguma did good guarding. The Beauts put up a hard fight. Joe Enos was the main point getter for the Beauts, getting 11 out of the 23 points.

Teams

Beauts—R. Pedro, lf; J. Enos, rf; C. Baptist, c; S. Serpa, rg; T. Freitas, lg; F. Rosa, sub; L. Mendonca, sub.

Palama—Lee Chong, capt., lf; T. Okasako, rf; Goeas, c; Ah Tim, rg; S. Matsuguma, lf; Hong Ying, sub; Ah Shan, sub.

Second Game

The game between the Braves and Outriggers was the best game of the evening. The Braves led the first quarter by 7-6; the second by 13-12, and the third by 21-19. In the last five minutes of play the Braves were still in the lead, with the score 29-24, but the Outriggers got their eyes on the basket in the last quarter when Walter Holt shot three baskets in quick succession winning the game by the close score of 30 to 29. It was anybody's game from the beginning to the end.

Swan, Ah Ket and F. August did good basket shooting for the Braves.

Teams

Outriggers—W. Holt, rf; R. Burbank, lf; T. Marston, c; Johnson, lg; P. Mann, rg.

Braves—A. Lemes, rf; Ah Ket, lf; R. Swan, c; E. Gomes, lg; F. August, rg; T. Wright, sub.

William Meinecke refereed both games and did good work. G. Virgo and A. Parker were scorers and timekeepers.

Next Games

The next games are scheduled on Tuesday at Kakaako with the Outriggers meeting the University of Hawaii and the Braves taking on the Beauts.