

PALAMAS LEADING IN LIGHTWEIGHT LEAGUE

In one of the most exciting basketball games played at the Palama gym yesterday evening the Palamas turned the tables on the fast University of Hawaii team by the close score of 39-34.

It was a battle of fast passing. Head work won the game for the Pals. The score stood 8-8 at the end of the first quarter. The U. of H. walked away in the second quarter 14-13. The Pals braised up in the third quarter with some spectacular shots by Goes, Lee Chong and Ah Shan brought the score 30-29 still in the U. H. favor.

In the last quarter three time outs were given the players. Chong Weng had to leave the game entirely, as he sprained his ankle. R. Conant and Wm. Chung played a star game for the varsity. Shigi Matsuguma, one of the Paloma's star guards, left the game in the second quarter with an injured eye.

Lee Chong, Captain Goes of the Pals played a star game, also Ah Tim and Hong Ying, guards, did much to the victory of the Palama team.
