

Officers Win Out From Guardsmen By Single Point

Playing before a crowd of 400 fans, the Schofield Officers basketball team won from the National Guard of Hawaii team by a score of 25 to 24 last night in an Oahu Amateur Basketball league game at the armory that was worth traveling some miles to see. It was nip and tuck, with 7-5 at the end of the first quarter, and a point or two at half time. At the end of the third quarter it was 22-19 for the officers and it ended with a point between the two teams.

The Outriggers and National Guards have yet to meet. If the Guards beat the Outriggers, the three teams will be tied, but if the Outriggers beat the Guards, the championship will be settled.

Two other games were played last night at the armory. The Kamehameha club showed a reversal of form and walloped the Honolulu Service club 38 to 13, while the Outriggers beat the All-Around Chinese 53 to 20. At Luke Field the Marines walked over the aviators 30 to 19.

Schedule

Two postponed games from February 9 are scheduled tonight at the armory, the first being at 7 o'clock between the Sailors and the Honolulu Amateur Athletic club, and the second an hour later between the Schofield Service club and Fort Ruger.

On Saturday night at the armory, the Honolulu Service club plays the Sailors, the A. C. A. team meets Fort De Russy and the Outriggers play the Hacs. At Schofield the National Guard plays the Schofield Service club and at Fort Ruger the Fort Shafter team is a visitor.
