

SURFERS NOSED OUT BY NATIONAL GUARD

The National Guard basketball team annexed a tight game by the score of 40 to 37 Saturday night from the Outrigger Canoe club five. The surfers missed their lanky center Hagelstein. Swan was the star for the losers, while Waters excelled for the winners with eight field goals. Bittle at center made five. Nottage went in for the surfers and scored three baskets.

In the second game the All-Around Chinese almost doubled the score on the Navy team, winning out 32 to 18. Ah Fo Pung was star for the winners. He collected five field goals, while Joe Lin and B. Chung each made three. Hoffman of the Navy made three baskets.

There will be no games tonight at the armory, as the place has been turned over to the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. and the Ad club for their Valentine program.
