

GUARDS MAINTAIN TOP IN CASABA SET ROMP

The National Guard of Hawaii basketball team maintained its perfect position at the top of the senior basketball league race last night by defeating the All-Around Chinese 38 to 23. Waters headed the high scorers for the winners with seven field goals. Bill Blaisdell and B. Chung each made six.

The first game of the evening saw the Outrigger Canoe club defeat the Navy in a heavy scoring game by a tally of 51 to 35. The best scorer for the winners was Nolan, with 11 baskets while Conrigan topped the losers with five baskets.

Hooting of officials by a small percentage of the 250 odd spectators slightly marred the evening.
