

OAHU BASKET TITLE SERIES NEXT WEEK

The title in the Honolulu Basketball league has been won by the National Guard of Hawaii five but the championship of Oahu will be decided in a series of matches next week at the armory in which the four leading teams of the league will compete. Three of the teams are certain, namely the University, National Guard and Outriggers.

Palama and Luke Field play on Friday afternoon after the Inter-scholastic game. If Palama wins it will have to play the A. C. A. team for fourth place and a chance in the series. The game will take place, if necessary, on Sunday.

Word has been received that Maui intends to enter the inter-island series scheduled for the armory in March.
