

START FINAL CASABA ROUND THIS EVENING

The championship round in the Honolulu Basketball league series opens tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the National Guard armory with the University of Hawaii playing the Outrigger club and the National Guards meeting Palama. On Wednesday night the winners play the losers and on the following Monday the winners wind up.

To decide fourth place in the race the Palamas and All-Around Chinese played last night with the Pals trimming the Dragons by a score of 43 to 22. The first quarter ended in a 12-all tie. But from then on the Pals pulled ahead.

Eight teams have so far entered in the inter-island basketball tourney which is to start next month. Kauai, Maui, Hawaii, Outriggers, University of Hawaii, 27th Infantry and 35th Infantry are such entrants. The Interscholastic league champs will also enter.
