

CLOSE RACE IN BASKETBALL SET

WINDUP GAME ONE WEEK DISTANT

The round robin tourney between the four leaders of the Honolulu Basketball league reached a nice state of affairs last night with a quadruple tie. Last night the University of Hawaii defeated Palama, which had defeated the National Guards Monday. Last night also the National Guard defeated Outrigger club, which has defeated the University of Hawaii Monday. So each team has one victory and one defeat.

On Monday night the Palamas play the Outrigger and the University of Hawaii meets the National Guard at the armory. The two winners will tangle a week from last night for the title.

Entries for the inter-island tourney starting March 11 must be in the hands of Piercy H. Nottage this Saturday. The entrance fee must be paid before Saturday. Both the 35th Infantry and the 27th Infantry teams from Schofield are to enter the inter-island tourney.

Games

In last night's senior league games the score in the University-Palama affair was 22-16 in favor of the rah-rah lads.

William Chung and Chung Wong starred for the winners, while Lee Chong headed the losers. Fuller at guard for the varsity was in fine form.

In the second game the score was 39-24 for the Guards over the Outriggers. Gerald Bittle made eight field goals for the winners, while Nolan with five was star for the losers.

CASTLE REELECTED TENNIS PRESIDENT

The Hawaiian Tennis association held its annual meeting yesterday with the Beretania, Neighborhood, Manoa, Hawaii Polo and Racing, Ewa and Hilo clubs represented.

A. L. Castle was reelected president. Oswald Mayall was chosen vice president and F. E. Steere was made secretary-treasurer.
