

TERRITORIAL CASABA MIX OPENS TOMORROW

With a hurrah and a bang the territorial basketball championship series will open tomorrow night at the National Guard of Hawaii armory.

There will be a doubleheader with the first game between the Pearl Harbor Athletic club and the Outrigger Canoe club starting at 7:30 o'clock. The Alumni Alerts of Maui will play in the second game against the National Guards.

On Monday night the alumni team of the Hilo Boarding school will go up against Mills school, champions of the Interscholastic league. In the second game on Monday night the 35th Infantry team, champions of the Schofield league, will meet the University of Hawaii.

Wednesday evening the winners of Saturday will be pitted against the winners of Monday and on March 18 the two top teams will play the finals for the territorial title.
