Outrigger Brings Home the Trophies at the Macfarlane

LEFT: The Guild family celebrated the 76th Annual Macfarlane Regatta at the pep rally including Di, Lissa, Alice, Walter, Ryder and Jackie.

LEFT: Members of the Army won the military race for the first time: Rob O'Rourke, Ryan MacCormack, Kevin Chee, Matthew Fargo and Thomas Brown. They said they had a ball.

It's been 27 long years since the Outrigger Canoe Club brought home all of the top three major trophies from the Macfarlane Regatta in the same year, 1991 to be exact, but this was the year that Club paddlers made it happen.

OCC won the koa wave Macfarlane Regatta Trophy by outscoring second place Lanikai 209 to 199, and celebrated by drinking champagne from the Walter Macfarlane Memorial Cup and the Senior Women's Cup for the senior men and women.

And the hardware didn't stop there: paddlers won the Boys 12s Trophy, The Muriel Flanders Trophy for the Boys 18, the Primo Cup for Masters Men 40, The Ke Ka Wa'a Kahiko for the Masters Men 70, and the new Junior Men's and Women's Trophy.

Outrigger won 18 out of the 45 events.

The 76th Macfarlane Regatta shaped up into one of the Club's finest hours.

The Club blessed its new fiberglass canoe Waikiki in a ceremony at the Club before the canoe was paddled down to Waikiki for the race.

Paddlers feasted at a breakfast buffet at the Club and joined together with one loud "OUTRIGGER" after Walter Guild's emotional pep talk in the Ka Mo'i Lounge while the perpetual trophies sparkled on the bar top.

The Club's top notch steersmen found bumps and waves all day long to keep the Club in contention for the title. The points were close, and it wasn't until the final race, the Mixed Men and Women, that the title was finally decided. Outrigger won the event and Lanikai was fourth.

The Army, hosted by Outrigger, won the military invitational race too in a very close finish. PacCom came in second. The seven military crews and their families were honored at a ceremony at the Outrigger Hotel after their race where awards were given. They were all invited back to the Club for the post-race party, buffet, dancing and fireworks show.

Also participating in the military race were the Coast Guard, National Guard, Marines, Air Force and Navy Seals.

The Macfarlane is the only wave race on the OH CRA regatta schedule and is well-liked by paddlers for its waves, open steersmen and the chance to enjoy Waikiki Beach on the 4th of July.

The names of Outrigger's Macfarlane winners may be found on page 14. The complete Macfarlane results may be found at outriggercanoeclubsorts.com.

Regatta season ends with the HCRA State Championships on Saturday, August 4 at Keehi Lagoon.

Long distance paddling season begins later this month with Outrigger hosting the Dad Center Race for women, from Kailua Beach Park to the Club on Sunday, August 26.

Selling Macfarlane T-shirts and other merchandise were Jimmy and Kelly McMahon, Susan Heitzman, Pam Zak, Gerri Pedesky, Maureen Kilcoyne, Deb Deshais, Patty Mowat, Chris Nakaoka, Maile Ostrem, Cathy Hedges and Leela Goldstein.

Andrea Ray shows the awards made by OCC's Maintenance Shop for the regatta.

The Open 4 Men were Brady Piercy, Jimmy Austin, Tuarongo Cowan and Heinere Itchner.

The Open 4 Women: Skylar Fritz, Jennifer Lee, Kelsey Barden, Billy Lawson.

Cheering for the Outrigger from their hotel room were Michele St. John, Tana Feeley, Ann Hogan Perry, Tiare Richert Finney and Ann Martin.

Cinching the victory for Outrigger were the Mixed Open: Carter Mesker, Amy Lawson, Mindy Hartstein, Breana Grosz, Billy Lawson, Heinere Itchner.

Celebrating at Duke's after their race were the Novice Bs: Standing: Lauren Paultz, Devon Roney, Elaina Olson, Jess Zimlich, Jess Katinzky. Seated: Tracy Gruenert, Olivia Schubert, Brittany Johnston, Beata Cseke.

The Canoe Racing Committee's Siana Hunt and Tom McTigue celebrate after winning the regatta.
